Message from the President

Dear Friends,

It gives me immense pleasure to invite all of you to Kandy, to join us for an excellent line-up of events at the Annual Scientific Sessions and International Conference of the College of Surgeons Jointly organized with the SAARC Surgical Care Society and the Royal College of Surgeons of Edinburgh.

An elegant array of programs comprising master classes, workshops, symposia and plenary sessions have been organized, taking into consideration the needs of the surgical trainees and surgeons of the SAARC region and, at a higher plane, the current developments in the world of surgery. The Prestigious International faculty this year has a constellation of experts - numbering over 30 invited guest speakers - covering a vast array of subspecialties and frontier technologies from different parts of the world.

Kandy is a unique and picturesque venue boasting of salubrious climes along with a rich multi-cultural, multi-ethnic history – indeed a world heritage - worth visiting, at least once in a lifetime. The temple of tooth relic of Lord Buddha, the only one of its kind in the world, is located in the heart of the city. In addition, many places of historical interest and leisure value are located within a few hours drive from Kandy.

Organizing committee is redoubling their efforts in order to make this prestigious annual event an unforgettable experience for you, your friends, colleagues and your family.

I most cordially welcome all of you to Kandy!

Yours sincerely,

Prof. M D Lamawansa
