

Dr. Raj Kamal Jenaw, MBBS, MS was born at Tonk City (Rajasthan). He acquired MBBS in 1983 and subsequently MS General Surgery in year 1986 from RNT Medical College, Udaipur. He has been working as HOD in Department of General Surgery, SMS Medical College and Hospital till date. During various tenures, he was involved in uplifting of services for poor and needy people. Also he has been giving his major contribution to department of General Surgery in SMS Medical College and Hospital by giving his precious time and hard work for the upliftment of levels and skills of Department and Hospital in the state. Presently his main involvement is in upliftment of standards of Medical Education. He has been MCI inspector for Post Graduate and Under Graduate seats, also been DNB surgery examiner and conducting DNB surgery examinations in SMS Medical College and Hospital for consecutive 3 years He is a renowned academician and has published 25 papers in International and National Journals and presented 8 papers in National Conferences.