MESSAGE

Warm Greetings from Surgical Society of Bangalore ASI C C

It gives us immense pleasure in welcoming you all to Bengaluru at Virtual Platform. We are proud to host the 46th Prof. B. Hanumaiah Memorial National Continuing Surgical Education Program organized by Surgical Society of Bangalore, ASI City Chapter (SSBASICC) from 23rd to 27th November 2020 and experience an academic feast during the five days of CSEP2020.

The tremendous popularity of the CSEP is reflected by the fact that it's being conducted successfully for the past 46 years on a trot. For over the last four decades, this teaching program is keenly sought after by numerous surgery postgraduates from all over India with around 400 to 500 students attending annually from more than 120 medical colleges. The faculty who train the students are experts in their field and have decades of experience in teaching surgery postgraduates. They are from various medical colleges of Karnataka as well as from the neighbouring states so that you get a rich blend of exposure in various aspects of surgical skills. The CSEP aims at training you towards presenting surgical cases, attempting the theory exams during your examinations as well as enabling you to practice as a good surgeon. The able experts from the city of Bengaluru contribute immensely towards the success of this program.

The CSEP on a virtual platform, a teaching program of 18 hours which includes case discussion (8.00pm to 9.00pm) covering almost all systems ,discussion on post operative ward rounds stressing on tubes and stomas, a session on radiology and surgical specimens by experts. In addition we have included OSCE for 60 minutes by experts from the Royal College of Surgeons for the first time which was possible because of the tremendous efforts from Dr U Vasudev Rao and Dr K Lakshman who are coordinating with RCS.

Participate actively in the online clinical discussions and feel comfortable to raise questions and and get your doubts cleared. Also, approach our experienced and renowned anchors, Dr. Anjanappa T.H., Dr Rajagopal Shenoy K, Dr Gabriel Sunil Rodrigues, Dr Anil Kumar N, Dr Ravishankar H R, for any clarifications.

The highlight of CSEP is Karnataka State level surgery quiz, anchored by Dr. Rajan C.S, Dr Gurushanthappa & team, will be held on Wednesday, 25th November 2020. All current surgical post graduate students, MS and DNB, are eligible to participate in the prelims. The winning team (Pair) will be sponsored by KSC-ASI to represent Karnataka at the Grand National Surgical Quiz during ASICON 2020 at Vishakapatnam A P in December 2020. The preliminary round will be held on the same day at 5.30 to 6.00pm for all participating teams.

If you are interested in presenting a case in this platform , mail us your PPTs with a proper history, clinical examination with images and short videos for about a minute or less. The PPTs will be scrutinized, corrected and the date and time of presentation will be allotted to you. The mail id for

Dr. NITHYANANDA SHETTY

Dr. Nithyananda Shetty was a dynamic young surgeon and an active member of the Surgical Society of Bangalore and a reputed Cardiothoracic Surgeon.

Born on 8th April 1952, Nithya was the fourth son of a family of agriculturalists. He completed his MBBS and MS Degrees from JJM Medical College, Davangere. He joined the department of cardiothoracic surgery at St Johns Medical College under Dr. Jerry Mascarenhas before moving to CMC Vellore to pursue higher Surgical training in Cardiothoracic Surgery and obtained MCh from CMC Vellore in 1985. He returned to Bangalore and joined St John's Medical College as Asst Professor in Cardiothoracic surgery and later on became the Professor and Head of the department in 1989. He resigned from the college in 1994 and joined MS Ramaiah Medical College as Head of the department, a post that he held till he breathed his last in 2004.

He was an excellent surgeon, very popular teacher and above all an extremely good human being. He made sure his presence was felt in the academic meetings he attended and did not hesitate to put forth his views while participating in a debate. Apart from the Surgical Society he was an active member of Association of Cardiothoracic Surgeons of India and Cardiological Society of India. He was recognized as a giant in the field of thoracic surgery and was well known for his work in peripheral vascular surgery. He was selected as the Starr Ahmed Fellow and delivered a masterly Godrej Karal oration in 2003. He performed innumerable number of operations both complex and complicated with very good results. His Patients loved him for his simplicity and straight forwardness. He was quite popular amongst his friends and colleagues and was a devoted family man.

His untimely death in 2004 left scores of individuals among the family and friends in a state of shock and grief. He was at the peak of his professional career and enjoying life with his family and friends when disaster took him away. His memory will always remain in our heart and mind. We will never forget his contribution to the profession and to the society.

PROF. B. HANUMAI AH

Dr. Hanumaiah was born on 1/10/1920 at Nelamangala taluk. He completed his secondary education in Magadi town following which he was encouraged by the government to carry on with his studies in medicine. He secured 1st rank in LMP conducted by the Medical School of Mysore state in 1941.

In 1946 he received Freemason Golden jubilee prize from His Highness Sri Jayachamarajendre Wodeyer the Maharaja of Mysore for having secured first rank in MBBS. He was deputed by the government to United Kingdom for higher studies in Surgery in 1953. He cleared FRCS from Edinburgh in first attempt in 1955. On his return he was appointed as resident medical officer at Victoria Hospital and thus began his long and illustrious career. He served as Associate Professor of Surgery at Bangalore Medical College in 1958 and was later moved to Mysore as Professor of Surgery. In 1966 he returned to Bangalore as Professor of Surgery and later on became the director of postgraduate studies in 1971. He became the dean and principal of Postgraduate Institute of Bowring Lady Curzon Hospital and also ex officio Superintendent of the hospital.

He was the member of Senate, Academic Council, and Chairman, Board of Examination, University of Bangalore. He was the Head of the department of Surgery of Bangalore Medical College till his superannuation in 1987. He was the recipient of Rajyothsava award by the Govt of Karnataka and Doctors Day award by the Indian Medical Association, Bangalore.

He attained heavenly adobe on 08.03.1995.

Dr.AJIT K HUILGOL

MS, MNAMS, ARPS

Dr Ajit K Huilgol is a man who wears, and has worn, many hats – pioneer kidney transplant surgeon, hypnotist, cricket commentator, and wildlife photographer.

He was in the team that did Karnataka's first successful kidney transplant in May, 1983. Since then, in these 37 years, he has done almost 2500 transplants, both in India and abroad, and specializes in doing multiple artery transplants and double ureter transplants. He started transplant programs in several hospitals – MS Ramaiah Hospital, Wockhardt, Yellamma Dasappa, Ashok Nursing Home, Columbia Asia Hospitals in Bangalore and Mysore, to name a few. He has also established transplant centres in Jalandhar, India, and in Dhaka, Bangladesh. He has been a consultant for Nigeria, Uganda, Ethiopia, and other African countries.

Dr Huilgol was a cricket commentator in English for All India Radio from 1972 to 2005, and has been a commentator for Doordarshan for a few cricket matches, including some One Day Internationals. An image that he took in the Nagarhole Tiger Reserve in Karnataka of a leopard descending vertically down a tree won him the coveted Runner-up Award in the highly prestigious BBC Wildlife Photographer of the Year Award in 2009. He is also an Associate of the Royal Photographic Society since 2008.

Dr Huilgol was given the title of Hon Special Police Officer in the Karnataka Forest CID wing for his courageous role in nabbing over 40 tiger, and other rare animal, poachers who were operating in the Nagarhole Tiger Reserve.

Dr Huilgol is married to Dr Medha, Anesthesiologist, and has two sons (both reputable lawyers in the Karnataka High Court), and two grandchildren.

After his resignation from Columbia Asia Hospitals in January this year, he is now leading a quiet, well-deserved retired life in Bangalore, managing his two farms – one in Bangalore, and the other on the banks of the Kabini River in Karapura.

Dr. M. AUTHIKESHAVALU

Dr. Muniswamy Authikeshavalu was born on 16th August 1906 at Bangalore. After completing a course in LMP he went on to do MBBS from Madras University where he was the best outgoing student. He was deputed to Canada where he obtained his fellowship (FRCS). He worked in Mayo clinic USA with a special interest in intestinal abstruction. after returning to India he joined Victoria Hospital in 1956. Later he became the principal and Dean of Bangalore Medical College. He is known for his Marathon Teaching sessions. He pioneered work on “Peptic Ulcer Treatment - Truncal Vagotomy and Gastro Jejunostomy”. His original research work is still preserved at Mayo Clinic. He retired in 1967 from Government service and joined CSI hospital, but continued to teach students from St. Johns Medical College. He was married to Achamma and has two sons and one daughter.

He succumbed to cancer of stomach in 1973.
