20th ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF INDIAN ASSOCIATION OF ENDOCRINE SURGEONS

Date : 27th- 28th Sep. 2019
Venue: Hotel Marriot, Indore (M.P.)

Dear Colleague,

With great pleasure, we invite you to the 20th Annual Conference of Indian Association of Endocrine Surgeons, which is to be held on 27th - 28th September 2019 at Hotel Marriot, Indore, M.P.

About 400 delegates from different corners of India are expected to participate in this conference. The platform will be shared by leading surgeons from around the country, who will encourage their fellow and budding surgeons to achieve the highest standards in the practice of endocrine surgery.

The conference will be all about current knowledge and techniques in endocrine surgery, along with promoting research in the same. Ways of making the society-in-general aware about endocrine disorders will also be discussed. This conference will immensely benefit the surgical trainees and practicing surgeons.

This year's conference is also special because it is being held in Indore, the financial capital and the emerging, most promising medical hub in the heart of India. The participants will also get a chance to explore the rich heritage and culture here, as Indore is surrounded by places like Ujjain (Jyotirling), Omkareshwar (Jyotirling), Maheshwar, Mandu etc., which are full of pleasing natural beauty and are of mythological and historical significance.

The organizing committee is confident that IAESCON 2019 is going to be a memorable event for all. We look forward to seeing you in the conference!

In the temple architecture of India, the Khajuraho complex remains unique.
