Welcome Message

Dear Friends and Colleagues,

Welcome to ABSICON 2024

Join us at ABSICON 2024, in the City of Nawabs-Lucknow!

We are thrilled to extend a warm invitation for the upcoming Association of Breast Surgeons India Conference, ABSICON 2024, the premiere national conference dedicated to the latest advancements in breast surgery. It is a true pleasure and honour for us to organize this conference on 2nd to 4th August, 2024 in the culturally rich and historically significant city of Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh.

Popularly referred to as the 'City of Nawabs', Lucknow is not only a hub of cultural splendour but also a city that seamlessly blends tradition with modernity. Well connected by air, rail and road, in this vibrant city you can visit the architectural grandeur of Rumi Darwaza, explore the labyrinth (Bhool bhulaiya) of Bara Imambara, and the Palace of Lights- Chota Imambara among other historical places. For the nature enthusiasts, Ambedkar Park, Ram Manohar Lohiya park and Gomati River front is equipped with jogging tracks and play areas for children. For the shopaholics, Hazaratganj market and Aminabad market offers the hallmark Chikan garments, jewellery and local handicrafts. Lucknow is also known as 'City of Kebabs' and will enthrall you in the delectable Awadhi cuisine known for its rich flavours and royal heritage.

Join us in Lucknow for ABSICON 2024, where knowledge meets culture and innovation converges with tradition. We promise you a dynamic and enriching experience, featuring cutting-edge insights, interactive sessions, and discussions led by eminent experts in the field of breast surgery. This conference is designed to keep you abreast of the latest trends and advancements in breast surgery.

With Warm Regards,
Team ABSICON 2024

ABSI President Message

It is an honour and a privilege to welcome you all to ABSICON 2024 being organized in the historical city of Lucknow, also known as "City of Culture (Tehzeeb)". ABSI was founded with a mission to advance the field of breast surgery, improve the standard of breast health care and to make ABSI the "Voice of Breast Surgery in India". It represents all practicing surgeons and trainees dealing with breast diseases from diverse fields and different geographic regions. During a short span of time, ABSI has become a vibrant and dynamic surgical society in India and was awarded the "Best Surgical Section of ASI" for two consecutive years. These achievements were possible because of the commitment and passion of ABSI leadership and members. Its contributions to improving patient care, research and training are well recognized globally.

ABSICON 2024 is planned with a main objective of offering the delegates a high quality academic event and to facilitate exchange of latest scientific information and ideas. The program has been designed in truly inclusive and multidisciplinary fashion to impart knowledge and enhance skills. A galaxy of eminent national and international faculty are going to grace the event and participate in various academic deliberations. The local organizing committee under the leadership of Prof. Anand Mishra is working tirelessly in close collaboration with ABSI office bearers to curate an academic feast along with warm hospitality. On behalf of ABSI, I would like to extend a warm welcome to all delegates and faculty. Let us make ABSICON 2024 a truly memorable academic event.

So, pack up your bags for this happening combo of academics and fun.

Long live ABSI,

With Best Wishes & Warm Regards,

Lucknow Attractions

Rumi Darwaza

When you want to witness the grandeur of the Awadhi style of architecture, make your way to the Rumi Darwaza, an imposing gateway located between Bara Imambara and Chota Imambara. This gateway built in 1784 by Nawab Asaf-ud-Daula is about 60-feet tall and is generally used as the logo for Lucknow city. Since the gate is modeled after the Sublime Porte in Istanbul, it is sometimes referred to as the Turkish Gate.

Bhool Bhulaiyaa (Bara Imambara)

Counted among the top historical places in Lucknow, Bara Imambara aka Asafi Imambara is a historical monument that dates back to 1784. Built by Asaf-ud-Daula, one of the renowned Nawabs of Awadh, the complex comprises a large mosque (Asfi Mosque), a labyrinth (the Bhul Bhulaiya), and a stepwell with running water (Shahi Baoli). The structure boasts of two large gateways that will lead you to the central hall, which is touted to be the largest vaulted chamber in the world.

Janeshwar Mishra Park, Lucknow

An urban park located in Gomti Nagar, Janeshwar Mishra Park is dedicated to the late politician Janeshwar Mishra. It is designed after the Hyde Park in London and counts among the top eco-friendly parks in the country. There are two large water bodies within the park which attract lots of migratory birds all through the year. Complete with jogging and cycling tracks, walkways, play areas for kids, gondola rides, and lush green settings, the park serves as a green lung in the city where

Residency, Lucknow

Also called the Residency and the Residency Complex, the British Residency is a complex of buildings that once served as the residence of the British Resident General. Constructed in the last quarter of the 18th century, the place served home to over 3000 British residents during the Indian Rebellion of 1857. Currently, the Residency is in ruins and is a protected monument under the Archeological survey of India.

Ambedkar Park, Lucknow

A public park and memorial built across 107 acres in Gomti Nagar, Ambedkar Park honors Dr. Ambedkar, Jyotirao Phule, Kanshi Ram, Narayana Guru, and many other social reformers who worked for equality and social justice. A striking feature of the park is that the whole place is built using red sandstone bought in from Rajasthan. The key attractions here include the Ambedkar Stupa, Pratibimb Sthal with statues of 62 elephants, the museum, and Dr. Bhimrao Ambedkar Samajik Parivartan Gallery, among others.

Near By Attractions

Ram Mandir, Ayodhya

Shri Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra, which is the trust constituted to look after construction and management of Ram Temple in Ayodhya has set a target of letting devotees worship Ram Lalla in the new sanctum sanctorum of the temple from January 14, 2024. The temple's construction in Ayodhya started on August 5, 2020 after PM Modi laid foundation stone.

Kashi Vishwanath Temple, Varanasi

Kashi Vishwanath Temple is one of the most famous Hindu temples dedicated to Lord Shiva. It is located in Varanasi, Uttar Pradesh, India. The temple stands on the western bank of the holy river Ganga, and is one of the twelve Jyotirlingas, the holiest of Shiva temples. The main deity is known by the name Vishwanatha or Vishveshvara meaning Ruler of The Universe. Varanasi city is also called Kashi, and hence the temple is popularly called Kashi Vishwanath Temple.

Katrania Ghat, Lucknow

Katarniaghat Wildlife Sanctuary is located in the Upper Gangetic plains of Uttar Pradesh. It is a protected area marked for its Sal and Teak forests, green wetlands, swamps and wetlands. It is one of the only places in India where plenty of Gangetic dolphins can be found in Gairwa River. The wild residents of this sanctuary are tigers, leopards, antelopes, deer, crocodiles, turtles, different species of birds and a host of other mammals.

Jim Corbett National Park, Uttarakhand

The park is best known as a protected area for the critically endangered Bengal tiger of India. Tourism is allowed in selected areas of Corbett Tiger Reserve so that people get an opportunity to see its splendid landscape and the diverse wildlife living here. There are many accommodation facilities at Ramnagar as well as at the Corbett National Park. Being one of the most frequently visited parks in the country, the forest department and other agencies have their hotels, lodges, rest houses, log huts for the visitors.
