

Prof. Dr. Subhash Khanna, MS, FRCS Ed, FICS, FIAGES, FALS, FAGIE.

Prof. Dr Subhash Khanna is a brilliant academician, pioneering professional, an eminent medical teacher and an internationally acclaimed surgeon of India who is renowned for his pioneering works in being one of the first in introducing Minimal Access Surgery, ERCP, spyglass cholangioscopy, endoscopic thyroid, endoscopic fistula, bariatric and robotic surgery to North East India. Some highlights of his career are as follows.

ACADEMIC AFFILIATION: Former Professor of Surgery at Gauhati Medical College and Agartala Medical College.

- Honorary Visiting Professor, GSL Medical College, Rajahmundry, Andhra Pradesh
- Over 180 scientific presentations and publications till date.

ACHIEVEMENTS AND AWARDS: Dr. Santokh Singh Anand Oration (2014), Dr. G. P Sarma Memorial Oration (ASA) 2014 and Dr. R. H. Karmakar Oration of International College of Surgeons 2016.

- Founder Member, and founder Joint Secretary of Assam Chapter of ASI.
- “Dr. B. C. Roy Award” in the category of “Eminent Medical Teacher”- 2017.
- Governing Council member, Association of Surgeons of India twice from 2007-2009 and 2010- 2012.
- Chairman, Association of Surgeons of Assam- 2014.
- President, Indian Association of Gastrointestinal Endosurgeons- 2018-2019.
- Vice President, IAGES- 1998-2000, 2000-2002 and 2004-2006.
- Vice President, Hernia Society of India- 2007-2010 and 2010-2013.
- Vice President, international College of Surgeons (Indian section)- 2019.- 2021
- Founder and Editor-In-Chief- “Recent Advances in Minimal Access Surgery”.
- Editor- Flexible Endoscopy, “Journal of Minimal Access Surgery” – 2020- 2022
- Co- Editor- 4th Edition Textbook of “Comprehensive Laparoscopic Surgery”.

ORGANIZATIONAL WORK: Convener of FIAGES Board (2016-2017)–Fellowship to over 900 members.

- Conducted over 36 CME, workshops and training programmes in the last three decades and organized ASACON 1996 and Silver Jubilee ASACON 2014.
- Contributed to formulations of “Guidelines of Minimal Access Surgery in India” endorsed by Medical Council of India.
- Organizing Secretary, National Conference IAGES 2020, Guwahati.
- Organizing Secretary, World Congress of Endoscopic Surgery (WCES)- 2024, Kolkata, India.

VISION : Building a stronger ASI and making a digital ASI.

- Introducing new programmes to further the visionary leadership of ASI.
- Helping young trainees with new ideas and work processes.
- Foster bonding among international organizations and ASI towards a grand collaboration of the surgical fraternity.